

Get ready for some explosive fun!

HyperNova, named after a powerful star explosion, is a burst of fun for players around the world.

Pull the handle to launch the rotating propeller, aiming for the bonus target on the nine-foot-tall matrix display. How hard you push determines where the propeller peaks and how many points you win!

The large planet-shaped marquee utilizes a persistence of vision (POV) display that's sure to be a big bang in any game room! Keeping up with the kinetic theme, the POV display is made up of four rapidly rotating blades with LED lights that are choreographed to draw a crowd with a lively galaxy celebration.

With its novelty propeller, intuitive gameplay and eye-catching presence, HyperNova is the next star of your game room.
